Employee Plan Compliance—An Update

Thursday, April 27, 2006

Guest Speaker:

E. Philip Bush is a partner with the law firm Locke Liddell & Sapp, LLP. He received his B.A. degree from Southwestern University and his J.D. and L.L.M. (Taxation) degrees from Southern Methodist University School of Law. Philip is a Board Certified Specialist in Tax Law and has practiced in the areas of Employee Benefits and Executive Compensation for over 25 years. He has extensive experience in advising employers and plan fiduciaries in plan design and compliance matters. He is an adjunct professor at Southern Methodist University School of Law where he has taught the course on "Taxation of Deferred Compensation" since 1989. Philip is immediate past Chair of the Employee Benefits Committee of the American Bar Association Health Law Section. From 1998 through 2005 he served as a member of the American Bar Association Joint Committee on Employee Benefits, which serves as the principal liaison group for attorneys to the IRS, Department of Labor and other federal agencies, which regulate employee benefit plans. Philip is a frequent speaker on employee benefits and executive compensation topics at continuing professional education programs.
