NEW ASPPA WOMEN BUSINESS LEADERS FORUM SLATED

Arlington, Va. – Mar. 12, 2008 – The American Society of Pension Professionals & Actuaries (ASPPA) will host the first-of-its-kind Women Business Leaders Forum. The two-day event will be June 19-20, 2008, at the Chateau Elan Winery & Resort, outside of Atlanta.

The forum will focus on third party administration (TPA) best practices, office technology, strategic planning, enhancing profitability, building a winning team, and much more. There will be a mix of general sessions and small-group roundtable discussions with ample time to network with peers. Chateau Elan Winery & Resort, the host facility, is a one-of-a-kind resort in the north Georgia mountains, located 40 miles from Atlanta and approximately 50 minutes from Hartsfield-Jackson International Airport.

Interested individuals should register for the forum and make hotel reservations at Women Business Leaders Forum (www.asppa.org/women). Attendees can save $250 if they register before May 23, 2008. Hotel reservations are available to registered attendees only.

ASPPA reserves the right to restrict attendance to those who own or manage TPA, actuarial, or pension consulting firms. Registration is limited for this conference and is on a first-come, first-served basis.

For additional information, contact Chris Robichaux, director of media relations at ASPPA – crobichaux@asppa.org or call 703-516-9300, ext. 130.

ASPPA is a national organization of more than 6,400 retirement plan professionals who provide consulting and administrative services for qualified retirement plans covering millions of American workers. ASPPA members are retirement professionals of all disciplines including consultants, administrators, actuaries, accountants, and attorneys. The large and broad-based ASPPA membership gives it unusual insight into current practical problems with the Employee Retirement Income Security Act and qualified retirement plans with a particular focus on the issues faced by small- to medium-sized employers. ASPPA membership is diverse and united by a common dedication to the private retirement plan system.
